CERTIFIED LEGAL SPECIALTY

- Civil Law Notary

Mr. Cáceres assists clients with local and federal data privacy and cybersecurity matters concerning consumer private information as well as with local and federal trademark and copyright registration requirements.

He has advised multiple clients in the healthcare, insurance, banking, marketing and advertisement fields regarding the adoption of cybersecurity measures, management of data breaches and regulatory compliance related to the collection, storage and use of personal data. More recently, Mr. Cáceres participated and formed part of the Asociación de Compañías de Seguros de Puerto Rico's Seminar on Insurance Companies and Cybersecurity, where he discussed Puerto Rico's legal framework on cybersecurity and how it affects the insurance industry.

His practice also includes general corporate matters, intellectual property, finance, real estate and administrative law. He has worked on a number of mergers and acquisitions, project development financing and commercial refinancing for clients in the hospitality, foodservice and healthcare technology industries. In addition, he has worked on regulatory, real estate, transactional and contractual issues related to business operations in Puerto Rico for data management, consulting and other professional services providers.

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Cáceres worked as a Student Associate in Washington, D.C., assisting with compliance matters related to the United States Department of Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) economic sanctions regime and the United States Department of Commerce's Bureau of Industry & Security (BIS) trade regulations. He also assisted with OFAC special licensing matters.

While in law school, he participated as a student attorney in the Janet R. Spragens Federal Tax Clinic at American University's Washington College of Law. During his time at the Tax Clinic he assisted low income taxpayers with federal tax issues.
