Mrs. Cartagena maintains a broad litigation and counseling practice representing corporate entities in a wide variety of business disputes. She has significant experience in complex litigation, including consumers' class actions, insurance litigation, contractual disputes, tax deficiency proceedings and general tort litigation in both state and federal courts.

She also has significant experience in administrative forums before multiple agencies and on bids and procurement consulting and litigation before agencies representing companies bidding on government contracts for goods and services. Her experience in the bids and procurement area includes representing clients before various Puerto Rico government agencies and companies, including the Power Authority, the Department of Education, the Ports Authority, the Police Department, the Department of Work and Human Resources, the Housing Department and the Elections Commission, amongst others.

Mrs. Cartagena is the author of the Puerto Rico Procurement Rules and Regulations Summary for the Second Edition of the Guide to State Procurement: a 50-State Primer on Purchasing Laws, Processes and Procedures published by the Public and Contract Law Section of the American Bar Association. The book delineates each state's laws, practices, and key issues for procurement.

Before joining McConnell Valdés, Mrs. Cartagena worked as a senior Planning and Logistics manager at Intel Puerto Rico and Intel Corporation.

REPRESENTATIVE CASES

Bids & Procurement

- Puerto Rico Power Authority: Health plan contract for the Puerto Rico Power Authority's retirees. The Court of Appeals confirmed the RFP award in favor of our client.
- Puerto Rico Convention Center District Authority: Administration of Bahia Urbana facilities. Defeated a preliminary and permanent injunction filed by the non-winning bidder.
- Puerto Rico State Commission Election: Scanning vote counting system. The Puerto Rico State Commission Election cancelled the RFP award in favor of our client's competitor. In a subsequent RFP process, the agency granted the RFP in favor of our former client.
- Department of Education: E-Rate contract for telecommunications and Internet access. The Court of Appeals confirmed the award in favor of our client.
- Puerto Rico Power Authority: Copper Cables. The agency granted our motion for reconsideration. As a result, the Puerto Rico Power Authority awarded a portion of the contract, which was originally awarded to a competitor, in favor of our client.
- Puerto Rico Power Authority: Electronic flight instrument system for PREPA'S helicopter. Our motion for reconsideration was granted and the agency cancelled the bid award in favor of client's competitor.

- Puerto Rico Department of Correction and Correction and Rehabilitation: Electronic shackle system. The Court of Appeals confirmed the award in favor of our client.
- Puerto Rico Housing Department: Represented various clients in connection with Request for Proposals regarding CDGB programs.
