We are pleased to announce that María Teresa Szendrey-Ramos has joined McV as Counsel in the Corporate Practice Group and as member of the Intellectual Property and Trusts & Estates Practice Teams.

María Teresa concentrates her practice in trademark prosecution, intellectual property counseling, and trusts and estate planning.

Prior to joining McConnell Valdés, she was a shareholder at a major San Juan law firm, where she helped create and manage one of Puerto Rico's preeminent intellectual property law practice groups. She has advised clients in multiple and complex trademark, copyright, trade secret, moral rights of authors, and right of publicity issues under local and federal law, advice which she has provided in transactions and in the daily challenges faced by individuals and corporations in these highly technical areas of the law.

She is ranked as one of Puerto Rico's Leading Attorneys in the Intellectual Property field by the renowned international publication Chambers & Partners in its Latin America Guide. Chambers & Partners classifies her as a top tier -- or Band 1 -- IP attorney. She is also ranked in the Intellectual Property Law field of The Best Lawyers in Puerto Rico guide, where she was recognized by Best Lawyers® as the 2016 Intellectual Property Law "Lawyer of the Year" in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

In the trusts and estates field, her practice includes succession and estate planning for family-owned businesses. She has drafted numerous complex wills and testamentary trusts and has advised Puerto Rico and non-Puerto Rico residents on estate planning.

McConnell Valdés is honored to have María Teresa as part of our excellent roster of talented attorneys and professionals.

Please join us in welcoming her to the Firm!
