Dora Peñagaricano and Roberto Quiñones-Rivera were recently recognized by World Trademark Review 1000 (“WTR 1000”), a guide exclusively dedicated to identifying the world’s leading trademark professionals, as two of Puerto Rico’s leading trademark attorneys. This guide has firmly established itself globally as the definitive ‘go-to’ resource for those seeking legal trademark expertise.

WTR 1000 states that McV’s IP group “shines on transactional and contentious matters in particular, though it also does a superb job building ironclad portfolios. Dora Peñagaricano knows more about the local IP environment than most; she helped to draft the Trademark Act and has acted as president of the national bar association’s IP committee. Active within the International Trademark Association as a member of various committees, she also brings an international perspective to the table. Experienced advocate Roberto Quiñones-Rivera is the contact point for those faced with contentious concerns.”

McV is one of only two Puerto Rico firms recognized by WTR 1000.
